TONOPAH OF TOP
 Amid the general uproar about Goldfield, Manhattan and Bullfrog there seems to be a disposition to forget the mother of them all, Tonopah. It is as little mentioned as the Cornstock. As a matter of fact the developments and discoveries in Tonopah last year were greater than in any other of the southern camps.

Tonopah last year paid out $1,200,000 in dividends, divided as follows: Tonopah Mining company, $1,000,000; Tonopah Extension, $150,000; Montana, $100,000; Midway, $50,000.

This is a very clever showing for a camp so young as Tonopah and gives promise of greater returns in dividends in the near future.

And the total dividends declared would have been much greater had the smelter capacity of the Pacific Coast been able to meet the supply of Tonopah ore offered.

At the beginning of 1905 there were but four companies in Tonopah shipping ore—the Tonopah, Tonopah Extension, Montana, and Belmont. The close of the year found seven shippers, the Midway, North Star, and West End having been added to the list during the twelve-month.

And the outlook for 1906 is more favorable still. Beginning the year with seven shipping mines, instead of the four of last year, it promises to add to the list this year the Golden Crown, Golden Anchor, Red Rock, Belmont Extension, McKane, Tonopah Home, Ohio, Tonopah Standard, West Tonopah, New York Consolidated and Cash Boy, making eighteen shippers with the end of the year that begins with seven.

The truest test of successful mining is the dividend list and Tonopah is certainly "making good" in that respect and promising to do better with every day.

Compelled His Son to Steal
 Unless the opinion of District Attorney Craig is much amiss a term in the penitentiary awaits Frank Shafer, charged with stealing a set of harness from Alvaro Evans and whose eight-year-old son alleges he was compelled to accompany him on the stealing expedition.—Journal.

Mrs. Cora Hall of Reno, who is studying music in Milan, Italy, is to appear there in grand opera.

Lloyd Ivory, a former employee of the V. & T. railway shops at Carson, and whose death was reported last month, is alive and well and employed in the Tonopah shops.

A government agent for allotting lands to Indians on Walker Lake reservation has arrived there and says the place will not be open for settlers until seven months hence.
